Our topic this month is "Cognitive Stimulation in the Treatment of Dementia." presented by Yvonne Baird, RN, CPN, CDP. Yvonne has been a Licensed RN since 1982. After 15 years practicing in the Hospital Settings she transitioned to the Home Health field in 2004. Her Heart for the Elderly started with her very first job at 16 working in a nursing home and has grown every since. She completed her Certified Dementia Practitioner course in 2011 and is a vital part of Education and training to both Caregivers and Family in Home Health and Assisted Living care. In her spare time she also manages the After Hours Nursing Triage Program for a Local Hospital system.

This month's Food Sponsor

Heavenly Care Home Care/Personal Assistant Services is a locally owned and operated non-medical agency which is licensed, insured and bonded to provide home care/ personal assistant services to people in their own homes, independent living, assisted living, skilled nursing, rehab and hospital settings. Our services are often desired or necessary to assist people in maintaining as much independence as possible. Heavenly Care provides people with medication reminders and assistance with activities of daily living such as bathing, dressing, grooming, toileting, incontinence care and other personal hygiene activities, as well as helping people with mobility. We also provide transportation, run errands, and help with meal planning, special dietary needs, light housekeeping and laundry services. We provide companionship and accompaniment to appointments. At Heavenly Care, we specialize in caring for people afflicted with various types of dementia and other neurological diseases, Parkinson's disease, and those on hospice. Our caregivers receive professional training and our management team is devoted to communicating with our clients and our caregivers, resulting in the highest quality services and satisfaction. Our services provide the benefit of one-on-one attention and care, which can allow you or a loved one to maintain a routine, thus providing comfort and peace of mind. Heavenly Care can provide services for one hour a day or up to 24 hours per day. Live-in caregivers are also available. Furthermore, you can continue to receive home care services for as long as you desire and we can adapt to your changing needs. Our rates are competitive and there are never any up-front fees. We will file and bill long-term care insurance. Call us today for a professional and complimentary assessment. We are available 24/7 at 512-340-0551. Feel the Heavenly Care difference!
